

From North Macedonia, with Love

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

—Matthew 28:19-20

A curious and thoughtful congregation member asked me last week, “Lisa, I looked up Macedonia and it’s part of Greece, isn’t it?”

She was asking because she’d been doing her homework! Many of you have heard my excitement as I have announced that the missionary Jennifer Moore is coming to Saint Luke’s on November 20th; the witness of this missionary who works with children in the area of former Yugoslavia will be a cause for Thanksgiving . . . so much more thanks than just for the Turkey on our tables!

So the answer to the question about Macedonia is ‘No,’ North Macedonia is not the same as the area within Greece called Macedonia. Do you feel that I’m giving you a geography lesson? North Macedonia was founded in 1991. It is a landlocked country bordering Kosovo to the northwest, Serbia to the north, Bulgaria to the east, Greece to the south, and Albania to the west.

It’s likely a place that you and I have never been, and may never see during our lifetimes. But the important thing is that our church is there ministering in Christ’s name to the community, and especially to the children. When I saw the write-up on Jennifer and realized she and I share our love for children and ministries to children, I picked up the phone and called the Board of Missions, to invite this missionary who has traveled the globe to be in our fellowship hall for Sunday school, in our pulpit for worship, and at our table to share food and fellowship with all of St Luke’s congregation.

Perhaps you have often prayed for those who do God’s work around the globe. But how often have you shared a meal with one, laughed with one, and enjoyed stories from halfway around the globe that they have told you personally? This is your opportunity!

Jennifer’s witness and her life of service remind us to be thankful for a connectional church that spans the globe. I’ve traveled to Kenya and seen The United Methodist University in Nairobi. I’ve traveled to Japan and learned about the Women’s Mission in Tokyo. I’m convinced, both as the traveler and the pastor, that there are few places in this world that the United Methodist Church has not touched with education, clean water, universities, disaster responses, seminaries, agricultural schools . . . the list goes on and on, and on.

On November 20th, this Sunday before Thanksgiving, when we pause to give God thanks, there will be a special excitement in our church and in our prayers as we give God thanks for bringing the world to us and for sending Jennifer from North Macedonia to North Chesterfield, Virginia.

Thanks be to God!
Pastor Lisa

Celebrating a Rebirth!

At the 2022 district conference, the re-establishment of the Commission for Work with Children and Youth in N. Macedonia was made official. The previous commission was disbanded in 2019 due to lack of leadership and members. After creating a new constitution and holding elections, the interim commission is happy the district has an official commission again with the following members (from left to right below): Jennifer, Ruta, Simona, Nevenka and Dejan.

Laurel Jones, Guest Music Director and Organist

St. Luke's has had the pleasure of hosting Laurel Jones as our music director and organist for the month of October and continuing for an undetermined time.

Laurel is a welcome breath of fresh air, and greatly enhances our worship service with her talents as an organist, pianist, and choir director.

Some of you may remember her from when she filled in for our worship service in the past as the interim music director in December 2015.

Laurel completed her Baccalaureate of Arts in Liberal Arts with a Music minor in voice at Southern Virginia University in April 2005.

While her main church is the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, some of Laurel's notable assignments include Glasgow Presbyterian Church, Lutheran Church of Our Savior, River Run United Methodist Church, and Southminster Presbyterian Church. Laurel has performed countless acts of volunteer service by singing in large group choirs as well as coaching and leading choirs at various levels of public school. We are truly blessed to have Laurel with us and thank her for her continued service to our Lord and to St. Luke's.
